We have had a busy week which started with our visit to Le Cateau for the Remembrance service, follow by odd sock day and finally Children in Need today!

Thank you to everyone for their donations this week towards all of these worthy causes!

- A little note from Mrs Bamma following a few queries at parents evening. When the children have common exception words on spelling frame, the practise test and the real test do differ due to the number of words selected at random.
- Can Class 2 children please keep their pencil cases at home as they are causing some distraction in class. We have all of the stationery that the children need in school.
